MISSED DEADLINE

They missed the deadline. You need to address it.

If you skip it, the team learns dates do not mean much.

After a miss

SOUNDS LIKE THIS	NOT THIS
“The deadline passed and the work wasn’t in.”	“Hey, just checking in on this.”
“Walk me through what happened.”	“Why did you do this?”
“We need a plan so this doesn’t happen again.”	“I need you to be better.”

Name the miss, stay calm, and ask for the plan.

Clear beats vague, and calm beats shame.
